

Wachusett Writers and Poets Club

Jan L. Ricord has written many humorist children's stories and antidotes since grade school and during her a 32-year career in child care. She also has written several novels, short stories and created the "It Ain't Easy" essays. Ms. Ricord has been published in The Power of Words, a publication of the Wachusett Writers and Poets Club, The Intergenerational Writing Project, local news papers and child care publications. Now retired from child care, she is continuing her writing career.